Hi Tom

The changes will require legislation which has to be passed by the ETI Committee and the Assembly.

Hi Stuart

Thanks for that

Have to say I'm disappointed. Had hoped that there would be a period of grace allowed for and didn't expect a limit of 400,000 kw/yr cap.

I understand that finances are limited but there will be poultry farmers who have predicted cash flows for their sheds currently stuck in planning based on current tariffs. I hope that the banks are sympathetic to the change in projected income.

Is this paper final or does it still have to go to The Assembly/ETI etc?

Kind regards

I can confirm that the final policy for the tariff changes in November has just been cleared and will be uploaded on our website later today. I attach a copy for your information.
