Stuart

I had previously agreed with Jim that we would go down to Invest towards the end of the month/early September to brief him and his colleagues on the proposed RHI changes but in the absence of agreement from the Minister at this point my thinking is that we might be best to defer until early September when hopefully we will have more certainty? If you are agreeable to this approach I will advise Jim accordingly.

What is your diary like for early September?

Regards

Seamus

Hi Seamus

How are things? As discussed previously, I was wondering would you be able to come in to INI for a briefing session on the current situation with RHI. Would you be able to suggest a time and date in the next fortnight? Thanks.

Regards

Jim.

Hi John

Thanks for your email. I honestly don't know where some of this stuff comes from but the rumours just seem to grow. Hopefully we will be in a position to publish the final policy soon and then the proper detail will be out there.

In terms of feedback on your 4 specific issues below I have provided a brief comment which hopefully will be helpful to you.

Regards

Seamus
