Good morning Alan

Yes, given that we are still awaiting final clearance from the Minister and to allow time for reasonable notice and the legislative process late October/early November is now a more realistic timeline.

I will keep you in the loop on any more concrete developments over the coming days.

Regards

Seamus

There is a rumour that I was made aware of today.
Specifically that the NI RHI current tier will be extended until November 1st
Can you confirm whether this information is accurate or not?

thanks
Alan
