Good morning Graham

My colleague Michael Harris asked me to get in touch with you about the position with RHI funding in light of the recent budget. Unfortunately the position with the NIRHI is unchanged, both schemes are over budget and closed to new applications from midnight on 29 February 2016. A review of the RHI will now be undertaken and further consideration given to its longer term future. There will be consultation on this in due course.

I hope this is helpful to you.

Regards

Seamus
