Dear Edmund

I refer to ongoing communication and consideration of Carbon Trust Loans and EU de minimis limits between DETI and Ofgem. Although a formal letter from Ofgem is awaited DETI has agreed that it will adjudicate on these cases and provide an instruction to Ofgem on how to proceed. DETI is in receipt of all the required information for a number of the affected applicants and has considered these cases. We are content that the following cases are within de minimis limits based on the revised operating hours submitted and should be progressed to accreditation as a matter of urgency:-

- Brooklands Nursing Homes X 2 (Kilkeel and Magherafelt)(NIRHI [redacted] and NIRHI [redacted])
- Spa Nursing Home (NIRHI [redacted])
- Lusty Beg (NIRHI [redacted])

Copies of signed off checklists from DETI are also attached for your records.

Regards

Seamus

Dear Seamus

Thanks for your email. My apologies that the formal letter from Ofgem to DETI on this matter is outstanding; I can confirm that we are progressing this as a matter of urgency.

Thanks for providing the checklists for the 4 affected applications you reference below. We will attach these to the relevant accreditation records for these cases, and this will enable us to prepare to act swiftly in moving to a formal accreditation decision on these applications once the outcome of the formal letter exchange has been completed.

Kind regards
Edmund
