This correspondence references proposals for degression on the GB domestic scheme. Degression in the GB Non Domestic scheme as you say was introduced in April 2013. I've not found any exchange of letters between Ministers over the introduction of degression in the GB Non Domestic scheme. I'm confident that DECC would have alerted DETI to their proposals but it must not have been saved on Trim.

Thanks for this. I have access to this TRIM link but I was looking in the Energy folders rather than the Finance folders for the correspondence. I had seen some of this correspondence before but thought that there was a more specific reference by the DECC Minister to the introduction of degression. It seems that GB had already introduced degression earlier in 2013 some months before the DECC Minister wrote to the DETI Minister.

Julie Sewell asked me over the telephone if I could get David Sterling copies of the 2013 Ministerial Correspondence between DECC and DETI which referred to the introduction of depression. I had a look on Trim but can't find it. I think it may also be referred to in the Committee's 11 November request for documents.

If you have it could you let me have copies.
