If it was sent I would have just forwarded it on to deti. She probably sent another one as hadn't heard back immediately from deti. That what people do sometimes if they don't get a response back within what they think is reasonable. I don't deny I got it just can't remember and no way of going back that far in my system. Not going to confirm or deny as don't have it and not going to make same mistake as made with spotlight issue. Point 4 is just a rehash of Sam mcbride point.

Suggestion is that the "whistleblower" sent another email to your own email account several days after the one to DETI

PAC members were shown an email last week but not allowed copies or anything.

Irish News reported this and I spoke to Trevor Clarke. He says the email looked fairly similar to the one published but may have had more content too. He wasn't able to be too sure exactly of the content though.

See below

It's follow-on about that email the PAC committee seems to have been shown.

Hi Clive,

Please find a list of questions below - we intend to cover this story at 9am tomorrow morning on The Nolan Show on BBC Radio Ulster, and would like a response by then please.

Grateful if you can confirm receipt of this email.

Regards, David

1.

Does Arlene Foster deny that she received an email dated 3rd September 2013 setting out concerns about the Renewable Heating scheme . For your benefit, the BBC understands an email setting out concerns was sent to Arlene@arlenefoster.org.uk

2.

Did Arlene Foster pass this email on to departmental officials ?

3.

Why did Arlene Foster not personally address the concerns highlighted in this document ?

4.

Does Arlene Foster deny the risks of the RHI were recorded, identified and sent to her in 2012 within a Regulatory Impact Assessement (RIA) document.
