Diane, michelle, William are the three not copied in. Perhaps better to indicate that officers are appraised where complaints have been made and is this a complaint from him?

Wouldn't give him the emails but he can get them from any number of group emails.

Dear Nigel

I have sought to meet to resolve the issues and I understand from below this has been delegated to you and Gregory.

I also sought to meet the Party Officers to brief them on what I have put in writing and other serious allegations made.

I am ready to meet with you and Gregory and have set aside tomorrow and Friday for that purpose.

It is my intention to copy the Party Officers in to the correspondence and appreciate their best e mail address to best send this to given the sensitivity of the information.

Yours Sincerely

Jonathan Bell

Jonathan,

As you will be aware the election campaign has now commenced and consequently I am travelling across Northern Ireland to campaign alongside my candidates. I have been available from 3rd March and am disappointed that you did not come to speak with me over the course of the last number of weeks. I particularly reject the inaccurate and unacceptable comments you have made about me.

I have asked Nigel Dodds and Gregory Campbell, neither of whom are candidates, to meet with you on my behalf as soon as possible.

Please contact Nigel to arrange a date and time suitable for a meeting.

Arlene.
