Read McCormick email. He is concerned. He hasn't a good recollection. Thinks he may have affirmed a JB view when TJ's name came up.

Andrew McC has referred to DSO for a draft reply. He's keen to reply and outline legalities around named third parties and privacy.

I responded on email but this will be difficult for Amc as he probably said things which were not within his knowledge

So what you are saying is he is likely brought my name into this based on what bell said during a conversation quite recently. Surely Andrew had indicated that he didn't know who was supposed to be so-called outside influence?

Also has potential to make AF statement look less credible

JB brought TJ's name in and Andrew can't recall how he responded.

Yes but I suspect that he went along with JB assertion

Can Andrew indicate that he has no info to stand over?

Sent to Timothy Johnston, John Robinson, Simon Hamilton on 20 Dec 2016 10:56:33

JB may want Amc to comment rather than release info himself

TJ, explain your stand over point.

Sent to Timothy Johnston, John Robinson, Simon Hamilton on 20 Dec 2016 10:59:19

He means Amc couldn't know of tj involvement and it was never said to him at the time

Can Andrew say on the record that he has no evidence to suggest that I was involved in pushing scheme as he could not have evidence to that effect.

Say that bell was pushing my name in recent days with a tape going and trying to entrap civil servants

What information is bell asking Andrew Mc to actually release? Is it simply that bell has tapes of Andrew saying he thought I was involved?

Received from John Robinson on 20 Dec 2016 11:07:21

JR

A McC is clear he has no evidence of TJ involvement and from best memory thinks he offered no comment when bell said that.

If anything Andrew McC thinks he may have said, at that time he concluded it was Andrew C

Is there some way to be able to have the first part of that said by A mcc said if required

Andrew considering reply now saying he will draft a note of the meeting and send to JB this afternoon for agreement.

This buys time.
