Andy

Very little on email :)

What is your official title in DAERA???

See below

My email to Peter Hutchison 2010!

I was also disappointed ACOEM could not have investigated other methods of incentivising renewable heat, I believe the current method proposed for the UK is open to manipulation and to prevent this will require a large administrative exercise. RHI needs to be as transparent and as un-bureaucratic as possible and I don't believe the proposed method can yet achieve these requirements.

I forwarded you a price list from balsa for pellets on the 9th December 2010. I think we had been discussing the hike in prices at the time nothing to do with RHI.

You sent me an email stating sam knox is a fool (nothing to do with RHI tho)
