Good Afternoon Jacqueline,

It was a pleasure meeting you in Perth yesterday and I would like to thank both yourself and Ruth for what was a very informative afternoon.

I was wondering, could you possibly forward a copy your presentation?

Also, I have been on B&ES's website but I am unable to find the document you suggested or the heat loss calculator. Could you please send me the link, or if you have the info itself, a copy?

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind Regards,

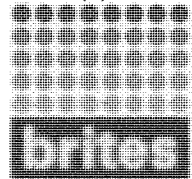

Meave
