AC draft RHI Regs 19.09.12.doc

Keith,

Please see attached final draft version of the NI RHI Regulations for your consideration.

You will note that, as discussed, we have reverted to the original definition of "building", deleted the definition of "site" and replaced references to "site" with "building". Also, please note, revisions at Regulation 51 regarding the word "current", this has followed discussion with our Director of Energy, Fiona is content with this revision.

Regarding Regulation 23, our legal advisors have reviewed your comment in relation the use of wording from regulation 8(3)(b) of the FITS Order. We remain content with the current drafting however if you wish for the wording to be revised I would be grateful if you could propose alternative drafting for our legal advisors to review. Otherwise I would suggest the drafting remains as it stands.

Finally, our legal advisors are checking the most recent query re "NIRO" definition, as per Michelle's email of 19/09. I will revert on this point separately as soon as possible.

As discussed on Wednesday, given the ongoing queries / revisions and the pressing timescales, I would be grateful if any further queries are raised directly with our legal team, I have provided contact details below. When corresponding with them please 'cc' myself and Joanne.

Susan

As requested at our meeting yesterday morning, we have revised the NI RHI Regulations to reflect the following points from the version marked with Ofgem comments that you shared with us in hard copy at the meeting:

With regard to this, please find attached a revised version of the NI RHI Regulations both in clean copy and marked against the version circulated by us on 11th September 2012.

We note that there may be some further amendments required following your on-going discussions with Ofgem and we look forward to hearing in relation to this.

Received from OF GEM on 14.11.2017

Alan

Many thanks for receipt of the draft RHI Regulations we received yesterday from you. As you are aware, we are being pressed on finalising these Regulations as soon as possible and there are a few outstanding issues we would like to discuss with you in a face-to face meeting next week if that is possible. We would be happy to come down to your offices to discuss these issues and are currently free on Tuesday 18th, Wednesday 19th and Thursday 20th all in the morning. I would be obliged if you could facilitate us on one of these dates or offer some alternative dates when you would be available to meet.

I am sending you in advance, the attached document which has some sections highlighted in green (with comments) which are the main issues we would like to discuss with you at our meeting.

Happy to discuss

Many thanks

Susan
