Afternoon Matthew,

Please find an updated version of the document –incorporating Bob’s comments. I’ve also incorporated the timeline into the document using the ECO template.

I’ve just spoke to Ruth – we haven’t got legal final comments – although Ruth was happy with the numbers (subject to the allocations matching the money – which she’s trusting me on). [Ruth: I did change “creative” for “innovative”].

There’s a gap on the front page (author and contact details). Since I’m not here next week you may want to consider either putting yourself or Keith Avis’ details on the cover page.

Please also see the spreadsheet with the costing. This includes the 5th day of legal time (2 FTE) to review the risks. We cut the travel/expense budget to keep the figure below £98k overall. Not much has changed from the last one.

thanks

Jonah Anthony
