Hi Samantha,

Thank you for the update, on which I have no concerns. I agree that it concludes the matter, both from the PSNI perspective and from our.

Thank you once again for your assistance.

Kind regards

John

Hi John,
Hope all's well. Please see below from the NI police officer. They have reviewed the application and appear to be satisfied with this. This appears to conclude the matter, however please let me know if you have any concerns.
Thanks, Samantha

This e-mail has been marked OFFICIAL [PARTNERS]

Good afternoon Samantha,

I have been able to access the data on Huddle and from my reading of it I can see that although the individual has made an application in respect of RHI he has declared on the paperwork that the biomass boiler will be used to heat both an agricultural shed and a domestic property. He also has provided supporting paperwork in relation to his non-single domestic status. I would agree therefore with your conclusions that there isn't any cause for concern in relation to this application. I will forward this information onto my senior officers with a view to having the matter filed for no further action on our part.

Thank you for your assistance on this matter,

Regards
