Somehow Bristol is never good! - I always end up sitting at Bristol airport for Hours and Hours!

I will chase Colin for arrangements. If all goes pear shaped then I will come meet you in London next month for a Blather – I have several appointments in London next month.

Kindest
Alastair

Yes, I can make the 12 Ali although I will be disappointed not to see you there.

Hope Bristol is good

Jacqueline,

I hope you got my other emails ? I sent you the wrong date originally but corrected this. The Open day is on the 12th – should be interesting but unfortunately I must be in Bristol that day. I spoke to Colin Elrick – one of the presenters and he is willing to arrange to pick you up at Aberdeen if you are still interested.

I think it would be interesting for you because the NFU obviously find the RHI beneficial – But on the flip side some of the installers are very concerned about changes to the RHI.

As you know my bug bear is the 99kW tier in Northern Ireland which is definitely raising costs and skewing the market

Kindest regards

Alastair
