Edmund / Teri

Can you please provide an update on the action that has been taken in relation to the possible fraud case for [REDACTED]? My understanding was that Ofgem had reopened this case following the confirmation that there is evidence that the participant is a farmer and therefore has an eligible non domestic usage. This particular case might come under the media spotlight so we need to clear what action has and will be taken. For example, has this case been referred to the relevant authorities as suspected fraud. Or has a hold been placed on payments whilst Ofgem investigate.

Please ring me if you need to discuss.

Thanks, Stuart
