Hi Lucia,

I just wanted to let you know I've had several messages from different journalists since Friday afternoon suggesting that they know about my emails to Arlene Foster. I've even had some MLAs who are on the PAC contacting me and telling me that journalists want to speak to me about this and even giving me the journalist's contact details. I did not respond to this. I will not name names but would prefer if they didn't do this. The Dept of Economy was also asking me to forward them the additional emails last week, I didn't do that either.

I'm not taking calls nor responding to emails from journalists, civil servants or politicians and am really just avoiding speaking to anyone at all about this. As you know I've provided all the info I have to you to let the PAC do their job. Unfortunately though I don't get the protection that the other whistleblower gets as they are a civil servant and as you know I hope to remain anonymous for my family's and business' sake and my peace of mind.

I am not complaining - I knew this would be a difficult time for me but if I can have the PAC reminded that I should be treated with the discretion that is applied to any other whistleblower, I think it might just help a bit.

Many thanks,
Janette
