DUP spokesman

The DUP is not privy to the list of those who applied for and are in receipt of monies from the renewable heat incentive, nor would it be appropriate for the DUP or any political party to have access to such information. We are however able to confirm that none of the Special Advisors employed by our Ministers are applicants to the scheme and for the avoidance of doubt are not benefitting in any way from this scheme.

In the interests of transparency Dr Crawford has asked us to inform you that while his family farm is not in receipt of RHI, his brother is a director of a poultry business which successfully applied to the scheme.

Dr Andrew Crawford was Special Advisor in the then Department of Enterprise, Trade and Investment during the period 2011 to May 2015. Dr Crawford did not meet the whistleblower nor has he any record of these issues having been raised with him at that time.
